Minutes read and approved,

Treasure's report given by Gary Freeman, approved as reported..

President Montague commented on the sacrifices and service given to the City of Kannapolis by volunteers Charles Umberger, Bill Reading and along with the other Kannapolis Volunteers. Kannapolis Fire Department is in the process of becoming a fully career fire department and will be phasing out volunteer positions.

Communications Committee: Chris Linker is getting close to completing the rebanding process.

Web Site Committee: President Montague reported that the Association's web site looked good but some departments still need to furnish information and pictures.

Fire Safety House Committee: President Montague reported that the fire safety house was now located at Jackson Park Fire Department and is in good shape thanks to Allen Fire Department, Jackson Park Fire Department, Harrisburg Fire Department and Emergency Management. Also it is the responsibility of all departments using the fire safety house to take care of it and keep clean.

President Montague asks if there is anyone wishing to serve on a committee to please let him know.

Betty Kluttz spoke on the upcoming drivers training be sponsored by VFIS and its importance in preventing injuries and deaths involving emergency responses and will send the dates to each department.

The 2009 schedule for the Cabarrus Firemen's Association and Board of Directors meetings is as follows:
