Motion and second to approve 07-08-2010 association minutes, same approved.

The Treasurer's report was given and approved.

OLD BUSINESS

V.P. Ray Allen spoke about the NCAFC at the Embassy Suites in Concord in February 2010. The county association usually pays the past presidents breakfast. Estimated cost is $20 per person. Motion and second to approve to pay up to $500 for the breakfast. Motion passed.

Maze trailer will be moved next week to Mt. Pleasant. Insurance will remain on the trailer.

COMMITTEES

Memorial Committee: David Montague thanked those who attended and those departments who helped. The committee is still working on design for plaque and hopes to have ready for October 2011.

Training Committee: Met last week for designing of the maze trailer. Rookie School has started with good attendance and no problems.

Awards Committee: No one was submitted for an award this year.

Accountability Committee: Joe Yowler reports the ID cards are close to being completed.

Training Committee: The Training Committee is working on the FF II class schedule for this year.

NEW BUSINESS

The 2010 fire department schedule for the Cabarrus Firemen's Association meeting as follows:

January – Rimer

April – Midland

July – Allen

October – Mt. Pleasant

Election of association officer was held with the following officer elected:

President – Dave Montague

1st V.P. – Jimmy Morgan

2nd V.P. – Jim Preddy

Treasurer – Jim Bailey (3 year term)

Secretary – Allen Burnette (3 year term)

The Fire Safety Smoke House is available to all departments. The county will provide the liquid for the smoke. There was some damage to the smoke house that went unreported. Damages unfortunately happen sometimes, if you damage something on the smoke house please report it as soon as possible.

Motion and second to adjourn at 20:14.

Respectfully Submitted,
Jim Bailey
